

Loosing sleep

Loosing sleep
In a waking dream

A recurring face I see
Comes to pass my way

Still my heart
Will you please be still my heart
In this world of change
You keep
Turning me round again

In my mind
Could it be that I'm
Just a fool for love
Is blind to danger

Is this faith
Then why should I
Hesitate when love
Would dance with a stranger

Shout it loud
From the rooftop high
Let it burn inside and try
Only to fade and die

If I knew all there was to learn
Every twist and turn
Why do I still try
